

SCHOLARSHIP- A Grant-in-Aid to a Student

The concept of scholarship emerged in Haryana in 2008-09 and since then it has been playing a crucial role in providing financial assistance to the deserving students. In today's world, education is a prominent tool to empower the young girl students but it has become so expensive that the girls require financial assistance to pursue the career of their dreams. In such a scenario, scholarships come up as the most desired form of financial aid. If one deserves, one can get scholarship on the merit basis. This makes scholarships prestigious and also pays for one's degree. The scholarship is financial aid provided to a student by an appropriate authority. It has changed the lives of many students and helped them to achieve success and fulfill their dreams. Therefore, Many Scholarships, Incentive and Stipend schemes are introduced by the Govt. of India and the Govt. of Haryana to achieve the goal. A brief note regarding such schemes is given below:-
